Clear & bitter. There was quite a heavy frost this morning. Went a little way to find some grapes for Mrs. Fox, but getting very fatigued, had to return. Misses, the fruit. My explanation to Capt. Penbrough of the laws governing the ebb & flow of the tide. Mr. George Nelson was here this morning to breakfast.

Tuesday Oct 11. 1864

Clear, and comparably moderate. Mr. Fore came over a little after dinner and remained until dusk, bringing a bottle of molasses manufactured by his lady on yesterday. Capt. O'Neill also paid us a visit. He brought no news.
